

FIREARM SAFETY AMONG CHILDREN AND TEENS

PREVENTING FIREARM INJURIES AMONG CHILDREN AND TEENS: THE STATE OF THE SCIENCE

Keynote Speaker

Debra Houry, MD, MPH

*Director of the National Center of Injury Prevention and control
(NCIPC) at the CDC*

“The Public Health Impact of Firearm Injury and Mortality”

BRIEF SCHEDULE

Welcome: Dean F. DuBois Bowman, U-M School of Public Health

Keynote Speaker: Debra Houry, MD, MPH, Director of the National Center of Injury Prevention and Control, Center for Disease Control

Discussion of NIH portfolio : Valerie Maholmes, PhD.,CAS, Chief of the Pediatric Trauma and Critical Illness Branch, National Institute of Child Health and Human Development

Session 1: Preventing Firearm Violence in Communities and Schools

Session 2: Preventing Firearm Violence in Health Care Settings

Lunch and Poster Session

Session 3: The Long-term Consequences (health, social and criminal justice) After a Shooting

Session 4: Examination of Policy: Understanding Current Policies and Child and Adolescent Outcomes

October 21, 2019

7:30 am – 3:30 pm

University of Michigan

Palmer Commons

100 Washtenaw Avenue, Ann Arbor
MI, 48109

REGISTRATION

You must be Registered to attend the Symposium

Link on our website
<http://childfirearmsafety.org>

You may also register to livestream the event.

QUESTIONS

Please contact Lynn Massey at
FACTS-Team@umich.edu